PFT Conference Welcomes Sponsors

The 59th Pacific Fisheries Technologists (PFT) annual conference in San Francisco, California during February 3-6, 2008 relies on sponsors to help fund student participation, student awards and keep registration fees low. The conference will take place at the Hotel Whitcomb (1231 Market St., San Francisco, CA 94103). PFT consists of West Coast seafood professionals from Alaska to Mexico and beyond. The conference is of particular interest to seafood suppliers, processors, importers, academia, government agencies, and others with an interest in fisheries research and issues. PFT attendees meet annually to learn about new technologies and discuss various "hot topics" affecting the seafood industry. PFT also offers an opportunity for networking with colleagues and making new connections. PFT is organized by volunteers.

PFT is a non-profit organization seeking sponsors to support student participation, student awards, and keep registration fees at a minimum.

Donations in any amount are welcome! All sponsors will be acknowledged in the PFT book of abstracts and during the PFT meeting.

Donors of $500 will receive:

A link to your website posted on the PFT web information page
Recognition and your corporate logo printed in the conference booklet

Donors of $1000 will receive:

More prominent positioning of all of the above plus a 2' x 6' table to display your products for 2-1/2 days from February 4 (8 AM) until February 6 (12 noon), (See "Exhibitor Information for display details on the PFT home page.)

Sponsoring a refreshment break or the hospitality suite will receive:

The most prominent positioning of all of the above results in sponsoring a refreshment break or the hospitality suite. The sponsored event will be named after your company in the program. Recognition of your sponsorship will be prominently posted at the break or hospitality suite. Contact Pamela Tom (PFT President, pft2008@gmail.com) for rate information.

Please consider this opportunity to promote your company to the very individuals with whom you do business. A sponsorship form is enclosed.
